

Supporting species

---

The following species have been identified as offering the greatest opportunity to be supported directly and measurably by project activities being proposed by the Sheffield Lakeland Landscape Partnership.

- Bats (as a group of species)
- Barn Owls
- Osprey
- Goshawk and nightjars
- Willow tit, flycatchers and other small woodland birds
- Water voles

Photo: Goshawk Andy Morffew [CC BY 2.0
(<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>)], via Wikimedia Commons